Hi everyone –

Attached is Judith's ppt (with 1 slide at the end by me, so I get to send it on!). Looking forward to the discussion tomorrow.

Yes, I will be sending over a PowerPoint presentation later today. As far as I know though no one is setting up a webinar.

Doug or Niva, correct me if I'm wrong on that.

Hi Judith and Niva,

I hope this finds you both well. Thanks again for meeting in March with Meredith Williams, Deputy Director of California DTSC in Cal EPA.

California managers and staff are looking forward to Thursday's call – ~~6/23~~ 6/30, 1:30-3 pm EST (10:30-12 noon PST) – to learn from EPA about the tools and resources you rely upon and your connections with NCEE and other federal agency economists.

I am getting in touch to confirm we're all set, and I have two urgent questions – can you send me your powerpoints in advance and were you planning to get a webinar set up? I also left you a message, Judith, with my contact information.

Please let me know asap if we're all set. The proposed agenda – is below – and is attached to the invite I sent you in May.

Eileen Sheehan

EPA Region 9 on IPA Assignment to Cal EPA/DTSC's Safer Consumer Products Program

Cell: 510.541.7417

Purpose of Call: To discuss EPA Economic Assessment Tools/Approaches

Background: Followup on March 2016 meetings between Meredith Williams and EPA OCSPP managers and staff.

Draft Agenda:

1. Introductions (10 minutes)
2. Snapshot of costing/monetization/economic analysis tools, templates and models used by EPA. Could California see a sample contract SOW (with tasks/deliverables) for economic support? (30 minutes)
3. Lessons Learned from paint stripper economic analysis, PFAS economic analysis and 1 BP economic analysis (20 minutes)
4. Linkage between OCSCPP economists and the EPA National Center for Environmental Economics (10 minutes)

5. Federal coordination: Does EPA coordinate/meet with other federal agency economists (CPSC, Robert Stone OSHA, Crispin Hernandez NIH, Jonathan Bach NIOSH, Regina Pana-Cryan CDC) (10 minutes)

6. Action Items/Next Steps (10 minutes)

Organizer: Eileen Sheehan, EPA Region 9 on IPA assignment to California DTSC's Safer Consumer Products Program, 510.541.7417
